Case # 09-50026 1/ of 4

As stated by the Debtors and their affiliated Debtors, and their professionals have conducted an extensive, nearly claim-by-claim analysis of the fully unliquidated disputed general unsecured claims in order to determine an appropriate reserve value for such claims. In performing this analysis, the Debtors and their professionals aimed to estimate each claim at a value, that, to the best of the Debtors' knowledge, reflects a reasonable "high-end" estimate.

I Sheryl Y. Carter object to the Debtors and affiliated Debtors Plans.
